Johannes'

Within one year Johannes made our life-long dream come true - In May 2016 we finally got our Skilled Permanent Residency Visa approved. Before we sought Johannes' advice we tried to manage the visa grant processes ourselves, but the reality is that Australian immigration law is not only overwhelming complex, but also constantly changing. Johannes gave us the decisive tip we needed regarding a viable visa subclass workaround that would never have occurred to us without his consultation. He established an individual immigration strategy for our family and handled the major time-consuming aspects of the visa application process. We can highly recommend his service. His communication and legal skills are excellent. He has been a pleasure to work with, bringing his attention to detail to every migration process. Thank you. Maren Waltermann
